BOLTON ORCHARD HEATER

The Bolton Orchard Heater is the result of many years of experiment and experience. Today it stands without a peer. It pioneered and blazed the way to fortune for many a disheartened grower. With its simple devices for perfecting and regulating combustion, for deflecting the flame and for the gathering and burning of soot, it has reached the highest state of efficiency and practicability.

The Bolton Orchard Heater has an almost perfect combustion, and on a filling of oil will generate as great a heat as is possible in an open burning pot. Many authorities contend that smoke is of benefit, and we agree inasmuch as the smoke acts as a blanket and retains the heat, and at sunrise prevents immediate thaw. No oil consuming device of the open type can be operated without creating much smoke for the purpose necessary, but the vital element is the heat immediately generated to hold the temperature at the point of safety against a sudden fall.

We have a large supply of these Heaters on hand. Our prices are Factory Prices.

Boys Give Profitable Concert

The Grammar School Band gave a very fine exhibition of its musical ability Friday evening, at its benefit performance. The work of training these lads has been the patient effort of W. C. Bohnett, and much praise was expressed for both instructor and performers, at the concert. The object was to raise funds for inexpensive uniforms for the boys, and this show netted about $40 toward that fund.

The girls of the upper grades gave their assistance by singing two pretty two-part songs, directed by Miss Reese. As Mr. Bohnett was leaving the school, his classes, the seventh and eighth grades, presented him with an elegant silver mounted baton, with which to continue his direction of the band.

Why Called "Oven Bird."
Do you know how the oven bird got its name? Well, it was because its nest built among the leaves or pine needles on the ground is arched and of an oven-like appearance, says the American Forestry association, Washington. You do not see the oven bird sitting on the topmost twig of a tree like some other members of the feathered tribe, but he sticks close to the ground, mounting to the lower branches of a tree only to sing or to scold an intruder. The song of the oven bird somewhat resembles the word "teacher."

SUPPOSED FRIEND OF JENKINS ARRESTED

New York.—"John S. Hansen," believed by the police to be the "J. Salter Hansen" who furnished bail for William O. Jenkins, United States consular agent at Puebla, Mex., after the latter had been arrested by the Carranza authorities, was taken into custody at the Hotel Plaza here on a bench warrant issued in 1919 in connection with an offense alleged to have been committed in this city.

NERVOUS BURGLAR FLEES FROM VICTIM

Berkeley.—A nervous burglar accosted Harry Snedigar, 1842 University avenue, February 26, near the corner of San Pablo avenue and Acton street, but became too frightened to rob his victim. "Hold up your hands," called the burglar as Snedigar approached. Snedigar says the man shook so from fright that he could hardly talk. Snedigar started to unbutton his overcoat to get his watch for the man when the robber turned and fled through a vacant lot.

BRITAIN SEEKS EMIGRATION OF EXCESS WOMEN

New York.—The Salvation Army in the British Isles, working in co-operation with the Government, is promoting emigration of the approximately 1,250,000 women in excess of the male population there, Commissioner David C. Lamb, London foreign secretary of the Army on a mission to the United States, has announced here.

San Rafael.—The guardianship of little Harry A. deWitt, involving the administration of property and money aggregating in value $30,000, was sought in proceedings before Superior Judge E. L. Butler by three applicants, represented by five attorneys. The boy's mother and father, Alfred deWitt and Mrs. Hazel Corbett deWitt, died February 19 in Larkspur, victims of influenza. Judge Butler announced that he would reserve his decision until he had consulted the boy, who is at a sanatorium in Ross, convalescent from the illness which robbed him of his parents. The boy's mother, blind since childhood, was the niece of James J. Corbett, actor and former pugilist, and Joe Corbett, former baseball player.

Sacramento.—County Clerk Harry W. Hall refuses to register Ichizo Sato, a native of Japan, who some weeks ago forwarded to him his registration affidavit secured from the County Clerk at Fresno. After a series of communications, some of the letters passing between himself and J. K. Hasaka, secretary of the Japanese Association, Hall sent a registered letter to Sato in which he says among other things: "My interpretation of the naturalization law is that you are not entitled to citizenship, although you have a certificate of naturalization. Therefore, I cannot register you as being a qualified elector." Sato served with the United States Army and was stationed at Schofield Barracks in Hawaii.

Los Angeles.—T. E. McCann, accused of murder, died in the county hospital March 3 a few minutes after he was discovered prostrate on the floor of his cell in the county jail. Physicians said he had taken his life. McCann was awaiting trial on the charge that he had murdered his aged wife, Mary A. McCann, here on January 13. McCann told the sheriff's office, when he gave himself up, that he had slain the woman and then finished shaving with the razor he used to end her life.

Red Bluff.—Mrs. Herman Conrad, popular young woman of this city, and only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Grimm, died at her home on First street, February 26, after a serious illness of pneumonia, brought on by an attack of influenza. Her mother is seriously ill and her recovery is doubtful. Mrs. Conrad was born in Placerville in 1893, but spent nearly all her life in Red Bluff, and two years ago became the wife of Herman Conrad, a prominent stockman of this county.

San Francisco.—While the family of F. M. Smith, widely known as the "Borax King," sat at dinner February 28, a burglar ransacked the upper floors of the millionaire's home, "Arbor Villa," Eighth avenue and East Twenty-ninth street, in an exclusive residence section of Oakland, obtaining jewelry and toilet articles valued at $2700, and escaped in the thick woods surrounding the estate. The intruder was discovered by a servant, but jumped from a window, overlooking jewelry valued at $15,000.

San Francisco.—Joseph Warris, 22 years old, a bookkeeper living at 2168 Bush street, dropped dead February 28 while playing ball with friends at Hamilton Square, Steiner and Geary streets. The police were told that Warris had suffered from heart trouble and it is believed that his death was due to heart failure caused by a possible shock he may have received when the ball struck him on the chin in the course of the game.

POLICE BREAK DOORS TO ARREST SPIRITISTS

Priest Gains Entrance to Home First, Then Officers Use Force

San Francisco.—Breaking into a house at El Cerrito, just across the county line from Berkeley in Contra Costa county, police officers March 3 took into custody seven Italians who, it is said, had become insane from playing with ouija boards.

Those arrested and taken to the insane ward of the county hospital at Martinez were: Adelina Bottini, 15 years old; Mrs. Sangine Bottini, mother of Adelina; Mrs. Edward Moro, Mrs. Josie Saldavini, Charles Saldavini, Harry Serrario, Louis Serrario.

The arrest of the four women and three men forms one of the most unusual stories in the history of spiritism ever bared by the authorities in California.

According to the authorities, Adelina Bottini, fifteen-year-old daughter of Mrs. Bottini, is the direct cause of the derangement of the seven persons because she installed the ouija boards in the house and forced the inmates to hover over the mysterious boards day and night. On two occasions twenty-four-hour sittings were held.

Five children, the youngest of whom is 2 years old, were found in the house. The children's heads had been shaved and the hair burned "to drive evil spirits away," the authorities learned.

On Monday $700 in currency was burned by the occupants of the house in El Cerrito in an effort to cleanse the atmosphere of "evil spirits."

All of the occupants were in poor physical shape and were suffering from lack of nourishment. The children found in the house were in a starving condition when rescued.

Neighbors complained to Town Marshal A. H. McKinnon of the strange doings in the house. Complaints were made that children had been lured into the house and kept prisoners.

McKinnon attempted to gain admission and when the people refused to open the door, help was asked of the Richmond police. Inspectors D. V. Shirley and Daniel Cox went to McKinnon's aid. In the meantime McKinnon called Father J. J. Hennessy, pastor of St. Joseph's Catholic Church in Berkeley. Father Hennessy persuaded the people to allow him to enter the house but admission was refused to the police officers.

After Father Hennessy returned to the street, it was decided to break in. Shirley and Cox battered down the rear door while McKinnon broke down the front door.

Mrs. Moro, whose husband, Daniel Moro, a blacksmith, died three months ago, screamed a warning not to enter. "My husband is here and he will kill you," she cried to the officers. Mrs. Moro's daughter, Jennie Moro, was killed two weeks ago on the streets of Richmond by an automobile.

The other women and men did not offer resistance. Four ouija boards were found in the house. Saldavini admitted the occupants of the house had played the ouija boards constantly for the last week, sometimes for twenty-four hours without intermission.

When the officers arrived at the house the occupants told them the ouija boards had demanded the sacrifice of belongings and that evil spirits must be driven from the house.

Adelina Bottini was scantily clad. On March 2 she burned most of her clothes. While waiting to be transferred to the Martinez Hospital the girl attempted to tear from her body what little clothes she had left.

The ouija board, according to Saldavini, told them to make the house a haven for children and by burning the hair and curls of the children the evil spirits would be driven away.

The youngest child found in the house was the two-year-old son of Louis Francisco of El Cerrito. The father and missed the child for an hour and was searching up and down the street when the boy was found.

PREACHERS STOP PLAN TO AID DISABLED "VETS"

Elks Forbidden to Show Picture on Sunday

Knoxville, Tenn.—Because the ministers of this city view it as a "proposed violation of God's holy day," the Knoxville Elks' lodge were forbidden to show a moving picture here on Sunday for the benefit of disabled soldiers.

Convinced that every cent taken at the exhibition would go to the relief of soldiers torn by war, the Knoxville Ministers' Association nevertheless protested to the city commissioners.

The commissioners instructed the chief of police to arrest the Elks' committee if the picture was shown in violation of the "blue law" of 1803 that forbids "any kind of show, feat, circus or theatrical performance or play of any kind in public places for amusement, gain or profit," on Sunday.

"The law is the law and right is right," said the clergymen. The picture was available only on Sunday.

CHINA CONTROLLED BY GREAT BRITAIN

Johr Bull Dominates Forty-seven Per Cent of Trade With Orient

San Francisco.—Lack of a reliable and definite foreign policy by the present administration has caused this country to become unpopular throughout the Orient, and as a result the business interests of the United States are suffering sadly beyond the Pacific, according to Frank E. Low, wealthy silk manufacturer of New York, who arrived here on the Pacific Mail steamship Colombia.

Low, who went to China several months ago for the purpose of inaugurating a plan that will improve the Chinese methods of reeling the raw silk in the hope of greatly increasing the great staple production of the Orient, said that despite the opportunities offered Americans during and since the war, but little has been done. He added:

"Korea ceased to love and respect us when we broke our treaty with her many years ago and when we failed China in the peace conference we lost out a bit more.

"It is nearly true that our business interests are also lacking in policy. The silk people realized this when we discovered that the Japanese are beginning to control the entire silk output. The Japanese know how to grow and produce silk and this year their exports of raw silk to the United States will be more than 300,000 bales and that means a value of nearly $1,000,000,000.

"The silk interests of the United States realize that we will have to stimulate the production in China and we are now at work. We are expanding a lot of money but hope to teach the Chinese new and improved methods. If we can arouse the Chinese they will exceed the huge output of Japan in a few years and then this country will continue to be the big factor in the production of manufactured silk.

"The United States residents who attack the work and policy of Japan in China do not realize the true facts. Japan controls but 7 per cent of China's trade, while Great Britain dominates 47 per cent. The American interests loom small by comparison. The real contender for trade is England and then the other European countries are also fighting hard. Germany is already at work and even Belgium is battling like a little champion. America alone seems to be satisfied to stand on the side lines. This attitude will never bring any results, and the sooner this is realized here the better."

GIRL NAMES OAKLANDER AS HER CHILD'S FATHER

Typist Given Guardianship of Baby; Will Sue G. D. Abbott, Jr.

San Francisco.—According to Granville D. Abbott Jr., son of Granville Abbott, retired capitalist and mining man of Oakland, of being the father of her seven-months-old child, Miss Vera L. Donnellan, a stenographer of this city, February 26 was granted legal guardianship of the child by Superior Judge Thomas F. Graham.

In the petition the child is named Granville D. Abbott, Third. The mother obtained guardianship, she said, for the purpose of bringing civil suit against Abbott under the statute by which a father is required to support his illegitimate child.

Miss Donnellan is represented by Attorneys Phillip I. Manson and Thomas A. Allan.

LORD HALSBURY, AGE 97, IS STILL ALIVE

London.—Lord Halsbury, the venerable former Lord Chancellor, has been receiving a flood of congratulations on the seventy-ninth anniversary of his call to the bar. Although in his ninety-seventh year, he still goes to public dinners, makes speeches and takes part in all the appeal cases before the House of Lords.

Lord Halsbury became Lord Chancellor in 1885 and after two temporary retirements filled his position without interruption from 1895 to 1905, when he retired indefinitely. Since the pension of a Lord Chancellor is 5000 pounds a year, it is estimated that Lord Halsbury has already received something like 100,000 pounds as a retiring allowance, and as one of the newspapers puts it, "he is still going strong."

PIPE LINE TO CARRY OIL FROM TEXAS TO CHICAGO

Chicago.—A pipe line to carry oil from the Kansas, Oklahoma and Northern Texas fields to Chicago, with a distributing center at St. Louis, will be constructed and in operation in the next twelve months, two petroleum journals announced here. An organization composed of independent oil dealers will construct the line at a cost of $25,000,000, according to the announcement. The pipe line, it was said, would be the longest carrier of refined oils in the world.

S. F. WOMAN SUES KIN FOR PROCEEDS OF SALE

Court Is Asked to Order Sale of $107,000 Lake County Ranch

Lakeport, Cal.—Mrs. Minnie Levin of San Francisco has filed suit in the Superior Court here against her brother, Joseph Levy of Lakeport, and three sisters, Mrs. Rebecca Moses, Mrs. Celia Brenstein and Mrs. Lena Levin, asking that the Court order the sale of the 600-acre Levy ranch in Big valley, Lake County, and that the proceeds be paid in accordance with an agreement dated September 1, 1886.

By this agreement, which is on record, Mrs. Levin contends that her late husband, David Levin, had a contract with Abraham Levy, father of the litigants, for the sale of the ranch, whereby David Levin or his heirs were to receive one-half of the excess price of the ranch over the sum of $23,700. The original ranch, with land added, recently was contracted for at a price of $107,500.

The sale was held up by Mrs. Levin's refusal to sign the deed unless her relatives recognized and divided with her according to the old agreement.

A Levy conveyed the ranch in 1915 to his children, share and share alike, without regard to the purported Levin agreement.

The Levy ranch was first the property of Lindsay Carson, brother of the famous early day scout, Kit Carson.

MISSING MARIN COUNTY MAN FOUND MURDERED

Body Concealed in Brush near Ignacio; Employer Arrested

San Francisco.—The body of a man, whose skull had been crushed with an axe and whose left arm had been severed was discovered February 26 in a clump of bushes on the ranch of Peter Filippini, three miles west of Ignacio, Marin county.

An attempt had been made, according to Sheriff J. J. Keating, to destroy the body with lime. The murder occurred late last December, according to the authorities.

The body is believed to be that of Dominick Marsell, who, up to Christmas day, was employed by Joe Rossi, a charcoal burner, who lives about a half a mile from where the body was found.

Rossi was taken into custody and is being held pending an investigation.

Marsell was discharged by Rossi, December 24 last, and the body found on the Filippini ranch answers the general description of the missing laborer.

PADEREWSKI QUILTS PIANO AND POLITICS

Geneva.—Ignace Jan Paderewski, former Polish Premier, who arrived recently in Switzerland, has gone to London for the purpose of laying before the supreme allied council Polish views concerning peace negotiations with the Russian Soviet Government.

London.—Ignace Jan Paderewski, former Polish Premier, will never again appear on the concert platform, nor is he likely to re-enter politics, according to the Vevey, Switzerland, correspondent of the Daily Mail. During an interview with M. Paderewski, the correspondent asked him if it was true he would accept the nomination as President of Poland.

"I don't think I shall be invited to become President," the great pianist replied. "I hope to devote the rest of my life to composing music. I am convinced an era of peace and prosperity for Poland is begun and feel my political mission is finished."

CITIZENS CHIP IN AND PAY TAXES FOR RAILWAY CO.

Eureka.—Street car service was saved for Eureka today by the business men of the city, who raised a fund of $2443.43 to pay the 5 1/4 per cent State tax on the annual gross earnings of the Humboldt Traction Company, which the company had announced it was unable to pay.

Manager J. W. Hale had stated that service would have to be discontinued tonight unless someone came to the rescue of the company, as both the bondholders and the company had declined to pay the State tax or even spend any further money on the road. The City Council declined Thursday night the first offer of the merchants to pay the tax if the Council would apply to the State Railroad Commission for an appraisal of the property with a view to its purchase by the municipality, but the merchants decided to go ahead and raise the money anyhow.

Modesto.—Joaquin Lopez, 20 years old, was placed in jail here on a charge of murder. According to the officers, Lopez shot and killed Blaz Possaro at Waterford, near here, when the men engaged in a duel with shotguns.

AUGUSTUS MORRILL, 88, FORMER U. S. CONSUL, SHOT BY MEXICANS

Washington.—Augustus Morrill, formerly American Consul at Manzanillo, Mexico, was killed by Mexican bandits February 26. Morrill was 88 years old and retired from the consular service in 1881.

The present Consul at Manzanillo, in reporting the killing to the State Department, said Morrill was attacked while on his way to the Hacienda el Balcon, three miles from Colima, where he lived, and that in a fusillade of pistol shots received two wounds.

The American Embassy at Mexico City has been instructed to make urgent representations to the Mexican Government looking to the arrest and punishment of the murderers and the American Consulate at Manzanillo has been instructed to make similar representations to the local Mexican authorities. Morrill's widow, who is 80 years old, lives at Colima. He also is survived by several children, who live in San Francisco, Oakland and San Rafael. He was appointed Vice-Consul of the United States at Manzanillo on January 26, 1869, and was made Consul at the same place on August 5, 1872.

San Rafael.—Augustus Morrill, the aged former American Consul at Manzanillo, Mexico, who was killed by bandits, met his death because of his refusal to submit to sequestration by bandits in order that they might collect a ransom, is the opinion of his son, Charles Morrill, a druggist here.

"While we lived in Mexico we had been harassed by a bandit named Gamora for many years," Morrill said. "He stole our cattle and otherwise bothered us, and for the safety of our families my brothers and myself left the country. My father and mother also left for a time, staying with my sister at San Lorenzo; but they returned later and took up their old adobe, despite the bandit threats."

Oakland.—Augustus Morrill, former American Consul at Manzanillo, Mex., was killed in an encounter with bandits February 26, according to a telegram from his son-in-law, E. L. Oldenbourg, British vice-consul at Colima, to relatives here. T. Leonard Morrill, a consulting engineer here, and son of the slain man, said that his father was engaged in agricultural enterprises, and had refused to leave Mexico when his three sons were driven out by bandits five years ago, although warned to do so.

"My father must have resisted the bandits as he was inclined to do so," Morrill said. "He had lived in Mexico for sixty years, holding at different times the position of consular agent at Colima and Consul at Manzanillo. He was appointed to the consular service by President Grant, but has not been in the service for twenty years. Despite the danger, my mother, who is 80 years old, remained with him in Mexico when we left five years ago. She is still living."

Beside T. Leonard Morrill, Morrill had a son and daughter in the San Francisco bay district, Charles Morrill, a druggist of San Rafael, and Mrs. C. S. King, a widow, of San Lorenzo. Dr. A. Lincoln Morrill, another son, who resided in Antioch, Cal., died a year ago.

The elder Morrill had a ranch three miles out of Colima which often had been threatened by bandits, but he was so well and favorably known that he always escaped the bandit raids up to the present, T. Leonard Morrill said.

Bandits Raid Arizona

Nogales, Ariz.—Alexander Frasier, American storekeeper and mining engineer, is dead and his brother, J. A. Frasier, is in a critical condition as a result of a battle with two Mexican bandits who raided a general store owned by the Frasier brothers at Montana Camp, Ruby Postoffice, thirty miles from here and near the Mexican line, late February 27.

J. A. Frasier, who was shot through the head, was able to make a statement when he was brought here. He is said to have identified one of his assailants as a member of a band of outlaws which has terrorized the border for many years. Frasier has a wife in San Diego, Cal.

This man, according to Frasier, rode up to the Frasier store, accompanied by another bandit whom the wounded man said he was unable to identify. The Mexicans held up the two Americans with rifles and, when the Frasier brothers resisted, the raiders fired. The bandits then looted the store of several hundred dollars worth of cash and merchandise and fled across the line into Mexico.

Notification of the shooting was received by the Sheriff's office here from Armodaville, the outlaws having cut the lines of communication from Montana Camp before they fled. Sheriff Ray Earhart immediately dispatched deputies to the scene of the attack and telegraphed the police authorities at Tucson, Ariz., for bloodhounds.

Mexican Governor's Nephew Held

Washington.—Captain Julien Calles, nephew of former Governor Elias Calles of Sonora, and an officer of the Mexican army, is being detained at Yuma, Ariz., and, according to reports in the Mexico City newspapers reaching Washington, his detention will cause the Mexican Government to make a strong protest to the United States.

Captain Calles was arrested for alleged complicity in the abduction of a Mexican named Ybarra from his ranch in Arizona. Ybarra was accused of a crime in Mexico, and was taken across the line and executed. The Attorney General of Arizona has been in correspondence with the State Department regarding the case, and it is the purpose of the authorities to see that Calles is tried for the alleged kidnapping. The Mexicans charge that Calles is being illegally detained, as there is no proof of his guilt.

Kidnaped American Returns

Washington.—Barry Hogarty, an American citizen, who was reported kidnaped by Mexican bandits on February 22, returned to his home safe and well on February 24, the State Department was advised by the American Consul at Torreón. He is superintendent of the American Metal Company at Mapimi.

Nogales, Ariz.—Deputy Sheriffs from Santa Cruz County and a posse from Tucson with bloodhounds crossed the international line into Mexico February 28 in pursuit of the bandits who killed Alexander Frasier and shot his brother, J. A. Frasier, in a raid February 26 at their store at Montana camp.

BOY ON SKATES KILLED BY TRUCK

Play Has Fatal Ending Under Wheels of Heavy Vehicle

San Francisco.—Twelve-year-old Sylvan Palk of 461 Central avenue was killed instantly February 26 when he fell beneath the wheels of a heavy motor truck while roller skating at Oak and Scott streets.

Henry G. Pengel of 1532 Florida street, the driver of the truck, was arrested by Policeman C. A. Burns and charged with manslaughter.

The boy and a companion, Dudley Manier of 1731 Hayes street, were on skates and, according to the Manier boy, his companion accidentally sped off the sidewalk and collided with the side of the truck.

He hung on for a moment, according to young Manier, then lost his hold and was crushed beneath the rear wheel. He was pronounced dead on arrival at the Park Emergency Hospital.

He was the son of Henry Falk, a salesman, and Mrs. Rose Falk, bookkeeper for the National Coal Company.

The mother and father had not yet arrived at their home, and some time was lost in finding them. The mother became delirious in her grief and was taken to the Central Emergency Hospital, and the father also suffered a collapse.

The lad was an enthusiastic member of the Boy Scouts and was on his way to a Scout meeting at the Columbia Park gymnasium. He was also a member of the Columbia Park Boys' Band. A brother, David, two years older, is also a member of the band, which is now touring the Orient and Australasia.

MOTHER ESTRANGED FROM DAUGHTER

Mother Pleads in Court for Photo When Lass Was a Baby

San Francisco.—Tears and hard words mingled in a legal battle between mother and daughter over a baby's photograph in the court of Justice of the Peace Thomas F. Prendergast. The photograph was that of Miss Evelyn Willis, 2230 Fifteenth street, who sued her mother, Mrs. Gussie Willis, 230-B Lexington avenue, to obtain clothing and personal effects the mother refused to give her because she went to the home of an aunt to live after the mother objected to her sweetheart, a returned soldier.

With her sweetheart and a policeman Miss Willis, who is eighteen years old, went to the home of her mother and demanded her personal property. The mother refused to give up anything and commanded the girl to return to her. The daughter then filed an attachment suit and a deputy sheriff took charge of the disputed articles.

When Judge Prendergast decided that the daughter should have the disputed property, the mother wept and begged for a photograph of the girl taken when she was a baby. Judge Prendergast ordered it delivered to the mother. "A baby's picture always belongs to its mother," he said, "and it has a value that cannot be measured in money."

When the daughter persisted in her claim to the photograph the Judge, with Solomon-like wisdom, ordered a copy made for the daughter and the original delivered to the mother.

UGH! A DOSE OF NASTY CALOMEL

It salivates! It makes you sick and you may lose a day's work.

You're bilious, sluggish, constipated and believe you need vile, dangerous calomel to start your liver and clear your bowels.

Here's my guarantee! Ask your druggist for a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone and take a spoonful tonight.
If it doesn't start your liver and straighten you right up better than calomel and without griping or making you sick I want you to go back to the store and get your money.

Take calomel today and tomorrow you will feel weak and sick and nauseated. Don't lose a day's work. Take a spoonful of harmless, vegetable Dodson's Liver Tone tonight and wake up feeling great. It's perfectly harmless, so give it to your children any time.
It can't salivate, so let them eat anything afterwards.—Adv.

came into the tramcar. The woman sat with tightly pressed lips, her woman's thin, angry voice:

"If it wasn't for me you'd be the biggest fool in London!"

Then for the first time the man grinned and the others joined with him.—London Answers.

Naturalist Picks Beaver From Among All Others as Most Intelligent Animal

We read much about animal sagacity and there is a common query: "Which is the most intelligent animal?" This query, writes Raymond L. Ditmars in Boys' Life, most frequently relates to the results in training animals to do surprising things or to do the "smart" things that many captive animals do. Association with the human and the artificial conditions of captivity bring forth many surprising traits in animals, but such have little to do with this story. When the writer is asked which he considers the most intelligent animal he has no hesitation in answering, although the subject designated may cause much surprise.

Despite the adoption of the horse and the elephant to domestic use, the docility and affection of the dog, the marvelous feats accomplished by trained sea lions and other marked demonstrations of intelligence among the larger animals, the writer is unswerving in his decision, and this comes after years of observation and deduction. He picks the beaver as the star of animal sagacity. And the choice comes from an order of mammals not usually credited with a high degree of intelligence. This is the order of rodents, or gnawing animals. It contains an immense number of species, the greater number of small size and scattered over all parts of the world. To this order belongs the rats and mice, the squirrel, porcupine, rabbit and marmots. The prairie "dog" is a member of this order and a fair rival of the beaver in solving problems of ingenious construction.

All the rodents are characterized in having strangely developed incisor teeth—those immediately at the front of both the upper and lower jaw. These teeth, proportionately larger and longer than with other animals, are continually growing and their edges meet in a fashion to become much sharpened during constant use like a double set of rapidly moving chisels. Thus the rat gnaws holes through wood and plaster, the squirrel gnaws through the shells of the hardest nuts and the porcupine—much to the chagrin of the camper—chisels out a generous hole in one's camera in solving the nature of the interior.

Mother's Cook Book

To work, to help and to be helped, to learn sympathy through suffering, to learn faith by perplexity, to reach truth through wonder; behold! this is what it is to prosper; this is what it is to live.—Phillips Brooks.

Food for the Family.
To give the children variety the following will be found wholesome, with milk, for the supper dish:

Pulled Bread.
Take a loaf of freshly baked bread within an hour after it is baked. Tear off the crust, pull the bread into strips, using two forks. Put into a buttered baking dish and bake a golden brown in a quick oven.

Irish Stew.
Cut three pounds of mutton into inch cubes, season with salt and pepper, dredge with flour and fry in fat until well browned. Cover with boiling water and simmer until the meat is tender. One-half hour before serving add one cupful each of potatoes, carrots, turnips, cut in dice, one-half cupful of onion. Cook until the vegetables are tender, adding boiling water if necessary. Serve with dumplings.

Salmon With Rice.
Line a buttered mold with cold cooked rice, fill the center with creamed salmon, cover with more rice, put the cover on the mold and steam half an hour or more. Serve with cream seasoned with lemon juice or curry or minced parsley.

Baked Beans.
Soak over night one pint of small beans; the next morning drain, cover the beans with boiling water, cook slowly until the skins crack. Drain, put them into a bean pot, sprinkle the top with two tablespoonfuls of chopped onion, pour over a pint of strained tomatoes and sprinkle with one teaspoonful of salt, cover the pan and bake slowly four hours, adding more tomatoes as those are absorbed by the beans. Fifteen minutes before serving add a tablespoonful of sweet chicken fat or beef fat, remove the lid and brown.

First Indian Sign Made by Man Named Chichestre

A man named Chichestre was first to introduce wooden figures as tobacco signs in America. This was in the middle of the nineteenth century. Most of these Indian figures were carved out of white pine, from paper patterns. The instruments ranged from the ax to the chisel and finer wood carving tools. Regular artists had their little shops where these figures were made and old figures repaired and repainted.

Lens Industry Revived.

A revival of the lens industry is anticipated in Sheffield, England, and the exhibits in this line range from the smallest telescope to a lens with a diameter of nine inches.

It Works! Try It

Tells how to loosen a sore, tender corn so it lifts out without pain.

No humbug. Any corn, whether hard, soft or between the toes, will loosen right up and lift out, without a particle of pain or soreness.

This drug is called freezone and is a compound of ether discovered by a Cincinnati man.

Ask at any drug store for a small bottle of freezone, which will cost but a trifle, but is sufficient to rid one's feet of every corn or callus.

Put a few drops directly upon any tender, aching corn or callus. Instantly the soreness disappears and shortly the corn or callus will loosen and can be lifted off with the fingers.

This drug freezone doesn't eat out the corns or calluses, but shrivels them without even irritating the surrounding skin.

Just think! No pain at all; no soreness or smarting when applying it or afterwards. If your druggist doesn't have freezone have him order it for you.—Adv.

"Gee, but it's late! Will your wife get up and let you in when you get home?" "I'll make her. I'll scratch on the door and whine and she'll think her dog's been locked out."—St. Louis Republic.

Health is the fashion. Take Garfield Tea, the herb laxative which purifies the blood and brings good health.—Adv.

Visitor (being shown round the grounds of estate bought by profiteer)—That tower, I believe, goes back to William the Conqueror. Profiteer—Oh, no, it don't; I've bought the lot.—Blighty (London).

"Do our children believe in Santa Claus?"

"So did I. But they never pay attention to anything I say."—Washington Star.

"Diamond Dye" Old Clothes
See faded, shabby dresses, coats, skirts, sweaters, blouses, gloves, feathers, draperies, everything turn new.—Adv.

Hubby—Yes, dear, bronze is a very tough and lasting material. Why do you ask? Young Bride—Nothing, only Farmer Jones writes that he is sending us one of his finest bronze turkeys.—Judge.

A postal card to Garfield Tea Co., Brooklyn, N. Y., asking for a sample will repay you.—Adv.

A Bad Dog
The Tower Constable—You'll have to chain that dog up. It's dangerous to leave him run loose.

Mrs. Bachelor—Yes, I know he's dangerous. He's our watchdog. An' we used to keep him chained up, but a tramp got into the yard an' stole the collar off'n him.—Houston Post.

Their Use
"What do they use bitts on vessels for?"

"I guess they are to use in the teeth of a driving gale."—Baltimore American.

NAME "BAYER" MEANS ASPIRIN IS GENUINE

Get relief without fear as told in "Bayer package"

The "Bayer Cross" on Aspirin tablets has the same meaning as 14 Karat gold. Both mean Genuine!

"Bayer Tablets of Aspirin" should be taken according to the safe and proper directions in each "Bayer" package. Be sure the "Bayer Cross" is on package and on tablets. Then you are getting the genuine Aspirin prescribed by physicians for over eight years for the relief of Colds, Pain, Headache, Toothache, Earache, Rheumatism, Lumbago, Neuritis.

For a few cents you can get a handy tin box containing twelve tablets. Druggists also sell larger "Bayer" packages. Aspirin is the trade mark of Bayer Manufacture of Monoaceticacid.

U. S. INCOME TAX EXEMPTS NOBODY

Every Person Who Had Income in 1919 Must Determine Own Liability.

MARCH 15 LAST FILING DATE.

Surest Way Is to Follow Form 1040A.
Free Advice in Doubtful Cases.
Severe Penalties in Law.

Nobody is exempt from Income Tax. An obligation is laid directly on the shoulders of each citizen and resident to consider his own case and to get his return in on time if one is due.

With each return showing a tax due a payment must accompany the return in the full amount of the tax or at least one-quarter of the tax.
All returns for 1919 must be filed on or before March 15.

Must Show True Figures.
In figuring up his earnings for income tax purposes a person must take into consideration all items of taxable income, and each item itself must be accurate in amount. Guesses and estimates must be avoided, for the return is made under oath.

Everybody who had an income during 1919 must now determine whether his or her net income was sufficient in amount to require an Income Tax return. The best way to find out is to get a Form 1040A and follow the instructions printed on it. That form will serve as a reminder of every item of income; and if a return is due, it tells how to prepare and file it.

One of the important points to keep in mind is that a person's net income is found by a computation prescribed in the law, and that each item of income from every source must be considered, unless specifically exempted.

Another thing to remember is that the personal exemption allowed taxpayers by law has no relation whatever to the requirement to file return. This exemption is not to be considered until a person has figured out his net income and determined whether it was sufficient to require him to file a return. Then, if a return must be filed, he should read carefully the instructions for claiming exemption, and complete his return.

If in doubt on any point as to income or deductions, a person may secure free advice and aid from the nearest Internal Revenue office. Many banks and trust companies are also furnishing similar service during banking hours.

Heavy Penalties in Law.
For failing to make a return on time the penalty is a fine of not more than $1,000 and an addition of 25 per cent to the tax, if any. For making a false or fraudulent return the penalty is a fine of not more than $10,000 or imprisonment not exceeding one year, or both; and, in addition, 50 per cent of the tax. There are other penalties for failing to pay tax when due and for understatement of the tax through negligence.

Many Sources of Income.
Aside from what one may earn by his services, there are many other sources of income. If he sold any property during 1919 he must figure out the gain realized. If he rented buildings, land, apartments or rooms such rents must be considered taxable, and he may claim deductions for necessary expenses incidental to rents.

Bank interest is a common source of income and is taxable whether withdrawn or not. Any amount of interest credited to a depositor is income to the depositor.

Interest on mortgages and notes is taxable; also bond interest received from corporations.

A taxpayer who cashed his insurance during 1919 must report as income any excess received over the total of premiums paid.

Members of partnerships or personal service corporations or beneficiaries of an estate or trust must report their shares of income distributable to them whether or not actually withdrawn.

Dividends of domestic corporations must be reported. Many other forms of income are taxable, unless specifically exempted.

INCOME TAX IS DUE MARCH 15

Penalties for Delay and Failure to Make Returns—Early Compliance Urged.

All income tax returns covering the year 1919 must be filed by Monday March 15. Each taxable return must be accompanied by check or money order for the full amount or at least one-quarter of the amount of tax due.

Cash payments are accepted only at the collector's main office; if sent by mail, they are at the sender's risk.

Residents of Northern California and Nevada should file their returns with, and make payments of Income Tax to, Justus S. Wardell, Collector of Internal Revenue, San Francisco.

Those who must file returns but have not done so are warned that the revenue law imposes heavy penalties for failure to get returns in on time or to make payments on time.
Early filing and early payments are urged, in order to relieve the internal revenue offices as much as possible of an overload on the final day, March 15.

THE STATE PRESS has made great headlines and much talk about a certain auto driven from Los Angeles to San Francisco in a trifle over nine hours. Where were the speed cops, and other traffic officers? Such a trip necessitated an average speed of more than 50 miles per hour; owing to slow-downs going thru towns, this average on country highways would be raised to better than 60 miles. This pace was against the state law, and in spite of that fact the feat is advertised. Every one on that highway that day was in danger, as are many others, when speed maniacs are about. The fine highways of California, paid for by its good citizens, were not made for the maniac, but that the beauties of the state might be the better enjoyed. The road for such drivers should lead to jail, and the dealer who used such methods for advertising should lose his license and be locked up with his driver, to make this democracy safe.

REGISTER NOW! It is a duty you owe to your country and yourself. As one of the greatest campaigns in our history is before us, and every good citizen should use his inherited privilege, the right of a voice in the government. Some one has said that he who neglects to use this privilege of casting his vote should have that suffrage taken from him. If that were the case, few men would fail to vote. According to our law, it is necessary to register at least 30 days before voting. California's primary election will be held May 4, necessitating registration before April 5. On one short street in Campbell at last report there were 21 good citizens who had not yet registered. Don't lose your vote by default. REGISTER NOW!

IT WAS ONCE SAID, "The only good Indian was a dead one." This at no time was so applicable to the Redman as to the Turk, who still holds a sort of mystic spell over some of the governments. These Turks have been the source of trouble from their day, and it does seem that annihilation is the only method of handling them. There may be good Turks, but we never hear of them.

Ralph Hyde is reported on the uphill grade with his flu malady.

Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Van Arsdell and infant son, Richard, were up from Hollister Thursday calling on relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Hale, of Ashland, Ore., were guests at the C. H. Whitman home last week. They have been spending the winter in this sunny valley to escape the Oregon winter "dews and damps."

Mrs. W. T. Alexander had for a visitor Sunday, Mrs. G. W. Chapple of Chicago, an old time friend. She was expecting her son, Dr. Carpenter, also, but he was called by telegram to go to Ripon.

Plans are well under way for the Junior-Senior high school play, "The Elopement of Ellen" on the evenings of March 26 and 27. The dates for the May Festival have been set for May 13 and 15.

The Christian Endeavorers will hold a St. Patrick's social in the parlors of the Congregational church Saturday evening, March 13. An invitation is extended to the young people to come and have a jolly time.

The debating class of the High school went to Stanford today for a day's study on the subject to be debated with Santa Clara High in the near future. The question is, "Resolved, that compulsory courts of arbitration should be established in the United States to settle disputes between capital and labor."

Johnson Avenue Improvement Club, all that its name signifies, held its meeting with Mrs. G. W. Sawyer. During the day the men of the avenue celebrated Arbor Day by planting two walnut trees in front of the Goodall home, where there were two out in that beautiful row down the avenue. That's the kind of improvement that improves.

The Hi baseball team journeyed to Morgan Hill Friday and took that aggregation into camp by a score of 17 to 11. This was the first game of the season and both teams were rather shaky, but give promise of a stronger contest next time. The same team met defeat by Mountain View High at that place Wednesday afternoon by a score of 9 to 8.

A. J. Farley, who has been house-hunting for some time, has purchased the property on North First street, which has been a home for retired Methodist pastors. Until recently the Rev. and Mrs. G. O. Ash occupied the place, but now the Board has decided to care for its aged ministers in other ways. Mr. Farley had negotiations made for the Harris house on Santa Clara-Los Gatos road, but the bargain fell through.
